Welcome to our upcoming Academy Courses!

The InjectNow Academy is dedicated to providing practitioners in the aesthetic field with all the latest Anteis tools and techniques to optimally model, fill, smooth and rehydrate, to make their patients look and feel the best.

It is our pleasure to present you today our key opinion speakers from Australia, Canada and Hungary who will show you current trends, news, tricks and tips and discuss with your their experiences and their ways of treatment.

Phuket (THAILAND) from March 2nd to 4th 2012

Dr. Arthur Swift from Canada is an Aesthetic Plastic Surgeon with over 25 years' experience. Since more than 10 years he has his own private practice in Montreal, Canada and he has 2000 - 2500 cosmetic Injections per year. Next to his practice he is in many scientific committees of societies, he is a national and international trainer and guest speaker and he supports many medical Advisory boards with his experiences and studies. Furthermore he was author and co-author of more than 10 publications and clinical researches: Well-known is „The Mathematics of Facial Beauty“ of 2010. Dr. Swift is on the one hand a medical artist and on the other hand he has another „musical“ achievement. He plays the piano at the McGill University Conservatorium of Music since several years - an artist in his business and in his free time.

Dr. Joseph Hkeik is a cosmetic physician with over ten years' experience. He is highly regarded for his expertise in delivering natural-looking results, drawing from his sense of artistic appreciation and commitment to patient care. One delighted client exclaimed, "I think you are the Michelangelo of this field".

Dr. Hkeik developed the concept of the "Triangles of Beauty", a systematic way to communicate, plan, deliver and track results of patient's facial rejuvenation. He is a national and international trainer and guest speaker on dermal fillers, facial remodelling and Laser medicine. He is sought after by providers of new technologies, products and procedures for his advice, technical application and knowledge.

Since 2007 Dr. Papp is General Manager of the Köruti Medical Center in Budapest, Hungary. With the principle: „We care for your health and beauty - your satisfaction is our success!“

Dr. Papp and her team offer high quality professional medical services, a pleasant environment and modern technology and materials. This is only possible because Dr. Papp has experience since more than 25 years and her know-how, approaches and updates are famous at national and international aesthetic congresses. She is often invited as trainer and lecturer in fillers, rejuvenation and anti-aging medicine and is a member of several societies.

Be curious about Phuket and it's fantastic atmosphere!
